

Is the studio open to the public?

Jyoti Chitraban Film Studio is a very busy studio and as such does not allow public entry for visiting and touring purposes. This is primarily due to safety regulations, security and confidentiality of our clients.

Do you do tours of the studios?

Jyoti Chitraban Film Studio is a very busy film and TV studio providing facilities to all filmmakers and producers. Therefore, we are unable to allow public tours as they might interrupt our customers' shooting schedules.

How do I find out or contact productions that are shooting at the studios?

We do not generally give out information about production houses or individuals working at our studio. However, if a production has given us the permission to share their information, then it will be available at our recent news section.

How do I become a runner in the film or TV industry or at one of the studios?

The studio does not actually make films. We only supply facilities on rent for filmmakers to create their own. Therefore, we generally have no involvement in production staff, including runners. Please contact productions directly.

How do I find out about job vacancies at the studio?

Our vacancies are advertised on leading newspapers of Assam.

How do I contact actors or directors?

You may contact actors or directors via their agents/managers.

Where can I find out about who owns the rights for movies, television shows or get prints?

Jyoti Chitraban does not hold the rights to any films or TV shows that have been produced at the studio.
